National Remote Sensing Centre (NRSC) is one of the primary centers of India (Government of India (GOI), Department of Space, MoD) that is mandated to provide state-of-the-art services for remote sensing data generation and processing. Current activities of the Centre, development of techniques for remote sensing applications, monitoring of better management aspects, and generation of the best government and non-governmental information for the benefit of the society. NRSC is also involved in the development of a national and international remote sensing data and information network, as well as in the REMARK 1. Consider $\mathcal{CM}(V, \mathcal{F})$ as a subalgebra of $\mathcal{M}(V, \mathcal{F})$. Then one may define $\mathcal{M}(V, \mathcal{F})$ as the closure of $\mathcal{CM}(V, \mathcal{F})$ in $\mathcal{M}(V, \mathcal{F})$.
